Territory Families ABORIGINAL CULTURAL SECURITY

Aboriginal children and young people remain connected to family, culture, language, community, and country

Aboriginal people are valued, and flourish as leaders

Differences in Aboriginal cultures, languages and communities
are respected, and celebrated

Our Vision

Territory Families is responsive and safe for Aboriginal people where cultural values, strengths and differences are integrated into the governance, management, design and delivery of services.

Aboriginal people experience culturally safe, trauma aware and healing centered
engagement

Aboriginal families, and communities self-determine wellbeing and safety

Our Cultural Protocols Services are delivered by or in-partnership with Aboriginal community controlled organisations
